

EXHIBITOR INVITATION LETTER

Dear Vendors:

On behalf of the Ohio Choral Director's Association (OCDA), I would like to extend an invitation to you and your company to join us at the OCDA Summer Conference to be held at Otterbein College, from June 21-23.

This event attracts hundreds of choral musicians throughout Ohio and beyond, whose specialties range from elementary through college level choruses as well as community, church, and professional choirs. The 2010 Conference promises to be larger than life with national headliner clinicians, such as Anton Armstrong and Jeffery Redding, along with presenters from Ohio such as Ann Usher and Robert Ward. Additionally, there will be several choral performances and choral music reading sessions.

This conference is a time of renewal for choral directors, who are busy making plans for the future of their ensembles. The more products that are available for them to peruse and try, and the more familiar they are with your products, the more likely they will be to purchase them, and benefit from them in their jobs.

It is my hope that you will be able to join us in celebrating a new or continued partnership with you and your company in this important annual event.

Vendors will have two display options this year:

- 1. Two-day option. Maximum exposure and benefit
 - a. Tuesday, June 22 and Wednesday, June 23.
 - b. Includes a box lunch on Tuesday, and dinner Tuesday evening.
 - c. Cost: $70.00 for the 1st table, $60.00 each additional table

- 2. One-day option.
